This isn't just an ad, it's also instructional material. For instance, do you know the words to "Up in the Air, Junior Birdman?" Do you know how to make the goggles to wear when you sing the song? First, make OK signs with both hands. Then place the end of the circle, thumb and forefinger near your eyes. Pivot your OK sign around on your head and, BINGO, Junior Birdman. Make sure you get the help of an adult before trying this at home.
